There are hundreds of great ideas and best practices that knowledgeable cruisers are using to monitor their vessels and improve their understanding of equipment and systems. Jeff Merrill, instructor for Offshore Cruising: Preparing Craft & Crew, has compiled an extensive collection of simple and effective techniques that you can use on your own boats. With more than 20,000 miles of offshore experience, Merrill has all the qualifications to prepare you for multi-day passages beyond the sight of land. This course is designed to be both an introduction and a refresher for owner operators and their crew.

Don't forget to use code PREPARE30 to save 30%!
